Affair En Plein Air at the Deering Estate
Jan. 16th and 17th 2021
Rules and Information

En plein air or plein air painting, is a phrase borrowed from the French equivalent meaning "open (in full) air". All work is done on site and the use of photos or recorded images is not allowed.

Masks and social distancing are required

1. All work must depict something on The Deering Estate. Both traditional & contemporary interpretations are encouraged. Participants shall, under no circumstances, include any inappropriate or offensive nudity, political, religious, or racial comments as part of any art work. The Estate, through its Director, shall have the right to remove any & all art work that they deem inappropriate or offensive.
2. Participants may work in any medium, but work must be completed on the Deering Estate premises during the time frames specified for the Affair En Plein Air.
3. Artists may work on any of the porches as long as they cover the work area with plastic or a protective covering.
4. If you wish to come and see the Estate before the event you will be charged regular entrance fees.
5. We request that participants credit all work that is exhibited or reproduced elsewhere, as such: "Produced while visiting the Deering Estate"
6. All work that is created or reproduced while on the Estate or using Estate images shall not be for commercial use, & can only be made available for private exhibit or private sale.
7. Artwork size limitation may range from 8x10 to 20x24.
8. Artists are expected to interact with anyone asking questions about your creation therefore, headphones are not permitted
9. Trash is not to be left in the area where you work.
10. Smoking, alcohol consumption & illegal drugs are not allowed anywhere on the Estate.
11. Prizes will be awarded by an independent juror. No one except the juror & committee members will be allowed to be present at the judging.
12. Any unclaimed work will be considered abandoned & will become the property of GroveHouse Artists
13. Participants agree to comply with the Deering Estate Park Rules & Regulations.

For En Plein Air Artists

- Canvases or work surface can be primed in advance and must be completely blank at the start of the competition.
- Artists must report to the registration table at the beginning of the day.
- All artists must wear the ID tag given to them at registration while on the property,
- Artists must provide all of their own supplies, including an easel .
- Each piece of art must be labeled with the GHA tags provided.
- There will be individually wrapped light snacks and water available, please bring a lunch.
